

Program Background

- The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed into law on March 27, 2020. The CARES Act provides supplemental funding for programs and a vast array of resources to assist people with disabilities to continue living independently in their communities across the U.S.
- Centers for Independent Living received funds to provide assistance to individuals with disabilities to assist with overcoming barriers encountered as a result of the pandemic.

Camden City Independent Living Center provides support to persons with disabilities throughout their lifespan so they can achieve their highest level of independence in their community.

CCILC's comprehensive services are a critical part of the support network that enables people with disabilities residing Camden City to live independently in their communities.
